

A Personal Letter

Dear Amanda,

How are you going? Thanks for your letter. Sorry it's taken so long to write. I'm busy of doing homework.

It's so cold in Toronto now. It has been snowing off and on for a week. How's the weather like in Hong Kong? Is there any typhoon? I have joined English Club lately. I have learned a lot of English. You know, it is hard to speak English all the time. My best friend Fion, she comes from Hong Kong as well. She takes good care of me, and teaches me English. She is very nice. I'm sure you will like her when we meet some days later.

Speaking of Kelly Ko, I'm happy to hear that she won a second place in Inter-school Science Competition. Give Kelly my congratulations! She is really great! Now Speaking English all the time is hard. I don't quite understand what the others are talking about. Do you know any ways to improve my English? My new friends here are nice. But I think the life is a bit boring. To be honest, I miss the good old days in Hong Kong with you all. Do you still remember we participate in the singing contest together?

After all I have great news to tell you! I will be back to Hong Kong during Easter holidays. Are you going to meet me in the airport? I'm longing to see you as soon as possible. By the way, I must stop now. Tons of homework is waiting for me. Take care and regards to your mother. Don't forget to write.

Love,
Emily
