

Writing a short story

Goodbye, fairy!

One day, I went to visit my grandmother on Lantau Island. After walking a few hours, I decided to have a rest on the beach. Suddenly, I found a bottle behind the rock. I was so curious that I decided to take it home.

I opened it in my room. To my surprise, something came out of the bottle. I was thrilled to find that it was a fairy. She was very pretty. She thanked me and granted me three wishes.

I was so happy. My first wish was to become a rich lady because if I became rich, I could give my family a better life. We could eat delicious food and wear beautiful clothes. So I wanted to be a rich lady.

My second wish was the fairy and I could become good friends. I wanted to play with my good friend. So I hoped that we could become good friends.

We became good friends. I did not want her to leave. My last wish was to ask her not to leave me. But she said she could not because she missed her family very much. She said, "I will visit you during the Christmas holiday."

I said, "Yes! Bye, bye!"

So I did not wish my last wish. I told her that I would save it for later.
