Dear Jeff,

How are things going? At this Easter break, guess what I did? Miss Sham gave me a story book. When I read it, I really felt scared. Now, I am going to tell you some plot of this story book.

The title of this book is 'Dead Man's Island'. The type of this story is horror story and the character is a girl who has found a skeleton in a box. The girl has a big secret when she was a teenager. Slowly, she finds that another box which has a skeleton too. She finds an address in the box. Then he follows the address and finds a private island. There is only one house on that island. The girl wants to find out the truth. She comes to the house and opens the door. What things are waiting behind the door? Well, I am not going to tell you the climax of the story. If you are interested, I will lend you the book. I think you can finish it in one weekend. And it will give you a big scare.

I know you love sci-fi story most. I also have 'Death in the Freezer'. Hope you will like the book. Reading can improve your reading skill and writing skill. Do you agree?

Love,
Brian
