

A story      By 4D Jasmine Wan Ching Man (1516)

On the last school day before the summer holiday, David invited Amy to go to the cinema on Saturday.

After school, Amy was very excited about this. She wanted to change for a new look and she thought David would be very happy when he saw her. That night, Amy asked her sister to give her some suggestions. "Sister, you always look very fashionable, can you tell me the popular styles in this summer?" Amy's sister said, "Umm... I'm not sure but I can lend you some fashion magazines!"

On Friday, Amy saw a US fashion model wearing some trendy clothes look very young and smart in the magazine, so she wanted to copy what the model wore. She went to a fashion house to buy some clothes and went to have a hair cut in Lee's Hair Salon. She was ready to meet David!

On Saturday, she woke up very early to take a shower and out on some make-up. She also wore earrings. She stood in front of the mirror. She wore the new colourful T-shirt, the new black jeans and the new long boots. She now looked like a US model in the magazine. She was very happy and went out.

Outside the cinema, she saw David waiting for her already. After David saw Amy, he was very surprised and laughed very loud. David said, "What's wrong? This style does not match you!" Amy was very embarrassed.

(240 words)