

A Pretty Alien

Have you ever met an alien? Well I did, yesterday morning on the way to school. There I was sitting on the bus when something special happened. Suddenly, somebody said, "Sorry, I have no money. Can you give me money?" But no one gave her money. I saw her, she was a pretty girl, so I gave her some money. She said, "Thank you, guy, I will pay back to you."

After few minutes, I wanted to get off the bus. At that moment, Pretty Girl said, "Guy, wait! Now, I pay back to you." Her body started to change. After that, she became very tall. She had no hair. She wore a trench coat, a Nike suit and sunglasses. I felt it was unbelievable! The weather also changed! It was rainy. I was shocked to see her. She grinned, "Relax, guy! I'm an alien, but I'm not dangerous. I'm very nice. I travelled to Earth, but I have no money. Thanks for helping me! Now, what do you want? I will give you a wish."

I was frustrated because I had never seen an alien. I wanted to make a joke on her. I whispered, "I want to have much money. Can you do it?" She replied, "Of course. But you need to wait for a few minutes."

After some time, I saw a lot of money fall from the sky. It was incredible! But no one could see Pretty Girl and the money. She said, "Guy, I can read minds because I have superpower, so no one can see me and the money." She gave me a card. It was her Facebook account. It was amazing to hear her say, "We always use Facebook because we are very smart. Next time, if I travel to the Earth again, I'll find you. See you!"

Then, she disappeared in the air!
