Hi Raymond,

How are you doing? Guess what I've been up to! I've been checking the information that the travel agent sent me about the holiday packages to Australia.

I've read the information very carefully. After comparing it, I will choose the Melbourne package instead of the Sydney package. It is a 7-day trip which is more appealing to me because it has a lot of things that we can play and help us relax. The itinerary is very nice.

First, when we arrive Melbourne, we have a city tour. We can walk through the city and enjoy the beautiful scenes. However, the Sydney trip just offers a harbor cruise. We can only stay in a big boat along the river instead of exploring the heart of the city. It's boring! Right?

Next, in Melbourne we have bush walking which is more interesting and special to people who come from a metropolitan. It sounds great! If we choose the Sydney package, we can only have free time in the morning before we leave. I think we do not have enough time to have fun there.

Then, let's look at the accommodation. We will stay in a 5-star hotel in Sydney, you may think that it is better than the 4-star hotel in the other package. I'd rather choose the one in Melbourne because it is a farm stay! It is more interesting and special to have fruit picking and a visit to a cheese factory. Besides, we can even ride horse if we want to, it sounds great, right? Besides, you can also see the extraordinary scenes outdoor. Why don't we spend more time outdoor?

Lastly, the flight length of Sydney trip is longer than that of Melbourne trip. We know that we can't tolerate long flights. Although the Melbourne package is more expensive, I think it's worth it.

Drop me a line to let me know what you think.

All the best,

Tracy
