A: Good morning/afternoon everyone. Today we are going to plan a picnic. First, what date do you think we would go?

B: How about one Saturday in July? Then, we can finish our examinations before the picnic, right?

C: Yeah! I think so. Then which place shall we go? I prefer Sai Kung Country Park. Do you have any other good suggestions?

A: I think Bride's Pool can also be a good choice. The azaleas will be in full bloom at that time. That will be so beautiful!

B: Well, I agree that the flowers are beautiful, but I think Sai Kung Country Park is really a terrific suggestion, because the air there is much fresher than in cities. It is quite special.

A: Okay. I agree that Sai Kung Country Park will be a good choice.

B: Then, if we are going to Sai Kung Country Park, do you think we need to bring something to eat?

C: Yes, of course. I think we can bring some sandwiches and snacks.

A: Do you think it is a good idea to go hiking? We will see a lot of amazing scenery there…

B: Yeah, yeah. If we go hiking, then each of us should take a compass. Don't you agree?

C: Yes, we also need to take our cell phone with us. Even if we get lost, we still can keep in touch.

A: But don't forget to bring more water. How about two bottles for each one?

B: Good! But how many of us will go? I think around ten will be suitable.

C: Okay. Sometimes too many people will be a bit messy.

A: Maybe you're right. Anyway, how can we get there? What do you think?

B: Um…MTR? Bus?

C: I would like to choose bus, because it is much cheaper.

A: Alright. Then when is the gathering time and where?

B: We may wait at the bus stop at 9:00am. Shall we?

C: Certainly. Then all those basic things have been settled down. A Saturday in July at 9:00am, gathering at the bus stop (which one???) and then take the bus to Sai Kung Country Park for hiking and having a picnic. Any more ideas?

A: I think it is all for the time being.
B: Me too.
C: Then that's all for today's planning. Thank you…
A: Thank you!
B: Thank you! (Prepared by 3A Kate Li)