

A day of Lucy Lau

By 3A Kate Li Jia Wen

Lucy Lau is my cousin, but I had never met her before. Whenever I saw her in movies, such as Lawyer in NY and Kung Fu Angels, I felt envious of her. And then, I had a chance to meet her. It made me feel delighted! Let me tell you what happened during her visit in Hong Kong.

Before she got off the airplane, lots of reporters were waiting in the arrival hall already. When the beautiful star --- Lucy Lau appeared, all reporters came around her taking photos and asking questions. It took quite a long time for us to get on the car.

In the evening, I took her to a shopping mall nearby. However, many of her fans appeared in a sudden. I felt tired about this. On the other hand, I wondered how she could keep smiling all the time?

Luckily, we were out of the crowd of her wild fans. We turned into an isolated street. She felt curious about the food stalls, so I bought some fish balls. While I was giving her the fish balls, she said no immediately. Then I realized that some reporters were following us in a small jeep and taking photos AGAIN!

In fact, being an actress is difficult, and being a famous actress will be much more difficult! (220 words)
