A Horrible Night

Jenny loves to watch movies. She often goes to the cinema twice a month. Usually she goes to the cinema, but sometimes she watches them at home.

One day, her parents went to a party and her sister went to a friend's birthday party, so she was alone at home. She had nothing to do, so she watched a ghost movie on TV. It was so terrible, so she took something to cover her face. She went to bed early as the movie was so terrible, and she was scared.

She woke up in the middle of the night and she saw a ghost on the window. She pulled a blanket to cover her face and screamed, "Oh no! Mum, come here! There is a ghost in my room. Help!" At this time her parents came home.

Her parents came into her room and turned on the light. "Oh dear! What's wrong? That's not a ghost. Look! That's a coat hanging on the window. Your sister did it. Don't worry.""Thank you, mum and dad." Then she went back to sleep.

Suddenly, Jenny woke up again. She saw a dark shadow on the window again. "Help! Please help me! Mum! Dad! The ghost…The ghost is really coming!" She cried.

"Come on, dear!" Her parents quickly went to her room again. "Oh, what's that?"

"Mum, it's me!" A voice answered. Then, they opened the window. "I'm sorry. I didn't bring the key, and I didn't want to wake you up. So I want to come in through the window." Jenny's sister said.

"Oh, I see. I will not see ghost movies anymore." said Jenny. "OK! Good night, everybody."

Then, all of them went to bed.

By S3B40 Elaine Yeung

(284 words)