S.4D Students' Writing on Teenage Problems

0708 S.4D Chan Woon Yau

Dear counsellor,

I am a secondary 4 student and have just started studying at a new school. I am writing to you for advice as I am facing many problems with my life and I do not know how to manage them.

The first problem I am facing is loneliness. In my previous school, I was able to make friends easily. However, now that I am attending this new school, it seems that nobody wants to get to know me. I have tried to make friends but the other students are always too busy to talk to me or are not interested in me. I don't know how I can make new friends when nobody will even talk to me. What can I do?

The second problem is some lessons are too boring. Teachers are talking and talking all the time, so I fall asleep easily or talk with my classmates. I think if teachers play games with us, we can make learning a lot more enjoyable. What can I do?

The third problem is too much homework at school. When I go home, I feel very tired. But I need to help my mother do housework, such as washing and cleaning. I can't do too much homework. I have English homework, Chinese homework and maths homework. What can I do?

I hope you can help me with these problems and give me some good advice.

Yours faithfully,
