S.4D Students' Writing on Teenage Problems

0708 S.4D Leung Ka man, Leung Siu Man, Cheung Chi Ho

Dear counsellor,

I am a secondary 4 student and have just started studying at a new school. I am writing to you for advice as I am facing many problems with my life and I do not know how to manage them.

The first problem I am facing is loneliness. In my previous school, I was able to make friends easily. However, now that I am attending this new school, it seems that nobody wants to get to know me. I have tried to make friends but the other students are always too busy to talk to me or are not interested in me. I don't know how I can make new friends when nobody will even talk to me. What can I do?

The second problem I am facing is love affairs. I am in love and have no time for my studies. Every day I see my boyfriend in the morning and after school. We go to see the movie and go shopping. When I go home, it is already 11 o'clock. So, I am very tired. I don't have any time to do my homework. What can I do?

The third problem I am facing is to do part-time job. Every day after school I do the part-time job at the KHC. I work seven hours every day. When I go home, it is already 12 o'clock. I am very tired. On the way home, I often fall asleep. I have no time for my studies. What can I do? (129 words)

I hope you can help me with these problems and give me some good advice.

Yours faithfully,
